

	Restorative Justice Facilitator
Position Description:	The Richmond Restorative Justice Program is a pre-charge diversion program primarily aimed at children and youth, who have come into conflict with the law. Restorative justice is a community based alternative to the traditional justice system. Trained volunteers facilitate community justice forums (CJF), which bring together the victim, offender and their families and supporters for a discussion about the incident and how the harm can be repaired.
Location:	Touchstone Family Association #120 – 6411 Buswell Street Richmond, BC V6Y 2G5
Responsibilities/Duties Include:	Interviewing Facilitation Writing Agreements and Summary Reports Attending Program Meetings and Events Participating in Training and Education workshops. Promotion and Advocacy for Restorative Justice.
Qualifications:	Excellent communication skills (Oral, written) Effective organization and time management skills Ability to work independently and as part of a team Ability to treat clients with objectivity, fairness and respect Previous experience with at-risk youth and/or conflict resolution an asset. Criminal Record Check required.
Commitment:	Volunteers are asked to commit up to 15 hours per month for a minimum of 12 months following acceptance into the program
Training:	3 days of community justice forum training from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police
Benefits	CJF Facilitator Accreditation Eligible for additional education and training (Crisis Prevention, First Aid).
Contact Information	Haroon Bajwa Coordinator, Richmond Restorative Justice Program Touchstone Family Association #209 – 6411 Buswell Street Richmond, British Columbia V6Y 2G5 Office: 604-207-5039 Fax: 604-279-1814 hbajwa@touchfam.ca